1. VOB files contain no identifiable traces on the following persons mentioned in references:

Istvan STOLTE

Anton STERN

Istvan HAJDU

Farkas SCHOTT

2. VOB files contain numerous traces on one Lajos HAJDU-SCHOTT, born 15 May 1909 in Esztergom Hungary, married, four children, leading member of "FALSI" and representative of the Socialists Party. In 1951 he was Secretary General of KSI (Hungarian National Council). Lajos HAJDU-SCHOTT reportedly connected with the Hungarian National Council. VOB files indicate that POB already had information on Lajos HAJDU-SCHOTT. In November 1951, POB staff employee Charles RUSCH was in Vienna and apparently discussed subject with VOB staff members. If Lajos HAJDU-SCHOTT is identical with the subject of your request, and POB does not have information on him, VOB will be glad to forward more detailed traces.

3. VOB files contain the following traces on one Zoltan MAKRA:

a. NAVA 6226, dated 2 August 1950, subject: "SIPUS, fm"; mentions one Zoltan MAKRA who claims to have clandestine channel into and from Hungary. MAKRA may be another front for the TAD group charged with the task of making publicity for the alleged intelligence network.
